Red brown and dark brown clay, moderately deformed by drilling so that darker layers are mixed with lighter layers.

No internal structures or lamination.

These data are to be processed into a computerized database along with existing standardized data from other legs and will be accessible to the scientific community at large. RECORD ALL MEASUREMENTS CAREFULLY, COMPLETELY, AND LEGIBLY.