0 - 150 cm: muddy sandstone, very dark gray, with some silt and shale layers. Slight bioturbation throughout, some scattered white barrows.

12 cm dark layer of wood

Several shells of bivalve

These data are to be processed into a computerized database along with existing standardized data from other legs and will be accessible to the scientific community at large. RECORD ALL MEASUREMENTS CAREFULLY, COMPLETELY, AND LEGIBLY.