Nannofossil chalk

White, very disturbed by filling.
Moderately bioturbated when visible.
(Mainly foraminifera). Laminae at 100 cm.
Sponges and laminae are light grey (5 Y 7/11)

Light grey laminae up to 1 cm thick, diffuse margins - are these diagenetic rather than depositional structures? Looks nodular at top.