Auger core, 0.5 cm diameter, to 0.5 m depth.

Material from 0 to 0.5 m consists of grey, clayey, diamicton with occasional small pebbles and gravel. This material grades into a sandy clayey diamicton with abundant small pebbles and gravel. The sand fraction is mainly fine to medium sand. The pebbles and gravel are predominantly rounded. The material is very soft and easily disturbed by hand.

The core is cut into 2 cm sections for analysis.

Visual Description

Color: Grey

Texture: Clayey diamicton

Grain size: Fine to medium sand

Pebbles and gravel: Predominantly rounded, fine to medium size

Softness: Easily disturbed by hand

Miscellaneous

- Observation: Grey, clayey diamicton with occasional small pebbles and gravel.
- Material grade: Sandy clayey diamicton with abundant small pebbles and gravel.
- Grain size distribution: Mainly fine to medium sand, with pebbles and gravel predominantly rounded.
- Core cutting: Cut into 2 cm sections for analysis.