FORM-LEAVING NAMIB CHALK

- Homogeneous, white (10YR 9/1), well indurated although degree of consolidation varies enough to produce biscuiting upon cutting the core.

- 60-80cm: Disturbed during core cutting (a "biscuit" shredded?)