Base of a gray mud turbidite? This might be a moderately bioturbated hemipelagic or series of small turbidites.

Slightly bioturbated through out, moderately bioturbated at the top. Slightly deposited mud layer after a turbid. Small particle concentrations from 40 to 50 cm.

Olive green mud turbidite. This is a biogenic turbidite.