Dominant lithology:
Greenish gray chalk, with frequent bioturbation (foraminifera, centimeter burrows, rare zoophytes).

Darker intervals of gray chalky claystone, with some parallel weakly laminated mud layers. (Deyay or silty?)

Transitional limits toward main lithology:
Color 5 GY 4/1
(Dark greenish gray)